3. Any damage caused by these misconducts will be recovered from the participant concerned.

Article 15 Force majeure

1. Rebel Republic BV is not obliged to fulfill any obligation if prevented from doing so as a result of force majeure. Force majeure also includes, but is not limited to, all external causes, foreseen or unforeseen, on which Rebel Republic BV cannot exert any influence, but as a result of which Rebel Republic BV is unable to fulfill its obligations. This includes illnesses of trainers and speakers that cannot be replaced in time, epidemics, natural disasters, strikes at the desk of Rebel Republic BV or elsewhere and force majeure at third parties on which Rebel Republic BV is dependent in any way.
2. If an event has to be stopped, changed, moved or canceled due to force majeure, Rebel Republic BV will refund the participants' fees already paid up to the possible positive balance that remains after settlement of the costs incurred for the event, taking into account the amount paid out by any insurance taken out for the event.
3. In the event of stoppage, cancellation, change or relocation of an event as a result of force majeure, Rebel Republic BV is not obliged to pay any compensation.

Article 16 Distribution of promotional material and other materials during events

1. During events it is not permitted to distribute promotion, brochures or other materials without the permission of Rebel Republic BV.
2. Costs and conditions may be attached to obtaining permission from Rebel Republic BV.
3. If it appears that materials have been distributed without permission, the participant who is responsible for this must immediately remove all materials or pay the costs for the permission and meet the conditions.

Article 17 List of participants

Participants can indicate when registering for an event whether they agree to placing their details on the digital list of participants. The participant can decide per event whether he wants to be included on the participant list. The list of participants is public and in some cases can be viewed on the event webpage. The registration procedure states which data will be published. The names of the participants are shown on the list. If the participant has added a passport photo and / or the name of his employer, these will also be shown in some cases. The data will not be used for other purposes.

Article 18 Copyright

1. All materials and graphic or other designs made by or on behalf of Rebel Republic BV in the context of the event remain the intellectual property of Rebel Republic BV.
2. The participant who wishes to use materials and designs, can submit a written request for this to Rebel Republic BV. Rebel Republic BV can attach conditions to the permission.

Article 19 Photographing and recording film material during events

Rebel Republic BV can have photographs and film recordings made during the events. Rebel Republic BV uses this photo and film material on the website, in digital and paper newsletters and on social media. Participants can object afterwards if a photo or film recording of themselves has been posted by sending an email to info@ready2rebel.nl. Rebel Republic BV will then remove or adjust the photo or film recording as soon as possible.

Article 20 Confidentiality and privacy regulations

1. All information provided by participants is confidential for Rebel Republic BV, its employees and employees of third parties hired by Rebel Republic BV.
2. Rebel Republic BV has privacy regulations that apply to events of Rebel Republic BV. These privacy regulations can be viewed and downloaded on the website of Rebel Republic BV and / or on the website of the relevant event.
